

Languages, Literacy & Communication

Literacy

The children will use the text Traction Man.

The children will explore a variety of activities including:

Creating character profiles, changing the ending of the story and comic strips.

Write their own scripts and create advertising posters for their toy superhero.

Explore stories linked to the Welsh culture and shape poetry.

Develop their oracy skills through role play and debates concerning the different superpowers. Continue to develop a range of punctuation and spelling/phonic patterns.

Welsh

The children will use drama to explore a variety of patterns, such as oes ... da ti?. They will be practicing reading aloud independently and learning new songs to develop a greater understanding, confidence and performance.

Expressive Arts

Art

Children will explore costumes used within films from the past and present. They will then design their own focusing on colour mixing skills.

Music

Children will make their own musical pattern using a variety of pace and tone to add to their toy advert.

Other information:

- PE - Will be every Tuesday. The children will wear PE kit to school.
- Spellings will be assigned on a Friday afternoon and the children complete a spell check the following week.
- Reading books will be given out on the set days and the children will be listened to and new book given that day.
- This curriculum map was built from the children's thoughts and ideas for our new topic.

Mathematics & Numeracy

The children will continue to complete place value activities to a develop secure understanding of the values of number.

Complete written methods of multiplication and division using hoops as a checking strategy.

Identify values of money and use to identify bonds within 100.

Use numeracy skills, exploring co-ordinates and time whilst composing music for their toy adverts.

Explore timetables and time in a variety of real-life opportunities.

Develop mental math's skills by using 'If I know then I know.....' statements.

Year 2 Spring Term 2024 Topic: The World is a Stage – Superheroes Mrs Sulway Henllys Church in Wales School

Health & Well-being

Personal & Social Education

Importance of fair play and other peoples point of view.

Mindfulness to allow the children to develop tools to use when facing and overcoming challenging situations.

Physical Development

Superhero training to develop speed, agility, coordination and confidence.

Exploring the apparatus and develop skills at different levels.

Humanities

History

Explore how films/animations have changed over the years.

Compare and contrast the technology used and the effect this has on the overall film.

Geography

Using mapping skills to identify local Superheroes, such as the location of The Grange Hospital. Co-ordinate skills to be used in forest school area.

RVE

Study how festivals are celebrated in our Church, with the emphasis on Easter.

Listen and respond to stories from the Bible relating to our Value, Compassion.

Explore prayer in other religions.

Science & Technology

Science

The children will develop investigation and problem-solving skills by:

Designing and making a zip wire basket.

Explore changes in states of matter by melting ice cubes using a variety of methods.

ICT/DCF - Coding, animations and databases

Plan and make an animation for their toy advert using I pads. Edit animation and add text. The children will also develop their creative skills to use Garageband to add music to their animation.

Purplemash to complete databases based on Superhero facts.

DT

As part of our topic the children will create superhero cars and shields using a variety of materials. The children will plan and design their product based on a success criteria and then use problem solving skills to adapt and evaluate their final design.